"For Non-Native English Speakers who want to Ace Interviews for their Dream Careers"

When you focus on these 3 areas

YOUR SUCCESS RATE WILL SKY-ROCKET!

Dear fellow English speakers,

What you are about to discover has come from 12 years of teaching non-native English speakers around the world to speak fluent English. I am going to share with you 3 fast ways to help you use English to get real results in your career that have already worked for hundreds of students that I have had the pleasure of teaching.

You see we live in a "new world" where we need more than just sitting in a classroom with their teacher in order to succeed.

The recent pandemic created a gap. As a result, more people are falling further and further behind because the cost of basic necessities has increased dramatically. For many it's a struggle to survive.

And it feels like an impossible, never-ending cycle!

It's true that the world is evolving and jobs and careers are more competitive than ever.

Your education matters! Actually, your whole life depends on it!

Which is why it's never been more important to set yourself up for success.

Did you know that an employee who speaks English is likely to earn 2-3 times more than one who doesn't.

So my goal with this guide is to equip you with 3 fast and actionable strategies to start using English to achieve your biggest and most important goals.

And if you are wondering why fluent English is so important.

Here's why....

IT CAN GROW YOUR INCOME, HAPPINESS, AND CONNECTIONS!

But First.... Why Should You Listen To ME?

My name is David.

I am a professional English coach.

I have been teaching since 2010 and during that time I have had the pleasure of working with hundreds of clients around the world.

So I want you to know you are in good hands!

Here's why I decided to go into teaching...

Reason #1 - I realised very early on in life that language was power.

Reason #2 - I love helping other become empowered through English.

Reason #3 - I get to see my students' lives transform every single day.

Over the years, I started to notice a trend....

The students I taught who were able to do these 3 key things always managed to do better than those people who didn't focus on these 3 key areas.

So I started to focus on these methods consistently with all of the clients I've worked with and the results were incredible...

Here are some examples...

Student #1 - Mook is a Thai doctor who lacked the confidence to speak to patients and fellow professionals in English. She is now working for the largest hospital specialising in healthcare for women and children in Singapore.

Student #2 - Emilie built the confidence she needed to get out of her comfort zone and seize opportunities coming her way. She went from being finance manager in a French-only speaking hotel to finance director for a group of international hotels.

And now, my mission is to help more non-native English speakers with these 3 key skills by getting this guide into their hands. So let's get started!

I have been taking classes with David, and I've improved my english skills since I met him. During the classes we usually talk about different subjects, news or situations, let me learning a lot of vocabulary and expressions.

Nowadays, I feel more confident if I speak english...and this is due to David.

He is a great teacher that I will always recommend.

I love our discussions with David filled with positive energy and great emotions, they always improve my mood 😊

STEP ONE

OVERCOME THE FEAR OF SPEAKING IN ENGLISH

OVERCOME FEAR

Most employees try to avoid speaking in English even if they speak English very well because their fear of talking to others paralyses them.

And as a result, here's what happens. They never consider working for international companies that pay more or give them better chances for growth and never even try to look for jobs online, which will include communicating in English.

If you think about it, it's kind of like purposefully playing small and only showing your expertise to a few local companies and hoping that somehow, someday, you will achieve more by doing the same job in the same company.

So here is what you need to focus on instead: Get over the fear of speaking in English and, even more so, start enjoying conversations in English. Start with something easy and pleasant, like a conversation about things you love and care about.

This will help you conquer the fear of speaking in English and realise that English is a tool that will empower you and you should use it to advance your growth, not make you pay the price of missed opportunities.

Being afraid to speak in English is like being afraid of opportunities, growth, and success.

So the first thing that is going to help you is to work on your fear of speaking in English.

My top tips to help you master this:

- 1) Join English-speaking groups
- 2) Have regular speaking practice about topics you enjoy
- 3) Make connections with other English speakers

STEP TWO

HIGHLIGHT YOUR VALUES IN ENGLISH

HIGHLIGHT VALUES

Most students I work with are incredibly skilled, gifted, and experienced in various fields, but they fail to highlight their real values in English.

And as a result, here's what happens. They don't get paid as much as they deserve to be paid and they miss out on opportunities that they deserve due to not being able to express their expertise accurately in English.

If you think about it, it's kind of like using basic vocabulary to show someone you're an expert. But we all know that experts speak differently and don't use basic language.

So here is what you need to focus on instead. Upgrade your level of English to match your value and learn to express yourself with ease. This will help you because it will demonstrate your true worth to others and you won't miss chances because of poor English knowledge or an overly simplified vocabulary level.

Imagine if you went to buy a house and the salesperson told you, "It's quiet around here and it's a nice area with nice schools" and in another viewing another salesperson told you "Situated in the quiet suburbs of a city with a lot of job opportunities like in London, this house makes a perfect home for a growing family." We really don't know which salesperson was better at what he/she does, but we know who made themselves sound like an expert.

So the second thing that we're going to help you with is expressing your true value and worth through accurate, expert-level English.

My top tips to help you master this:

- 1) Read books and articles related to your job
- 2) Listen to podcasts to upgrade your vocabulary
- 3) Find ways to talk about your job in English

STEP THREE

ATTRACT SUCCESS

ATTRACT SUCCESS

Most people know they want more but don't understand their mindset's importance.

And as a result, here's what happens. They upgrade their skillset, they go to a different university, a master's degree program, certifications and diplomas, but still stay in the same job, getting paid around the same amount.

If you think about it, it's kind of like they've decided to make an investment of time (and sometimes money too), but they never get to enjoy the profits of their investments because they aren't prepared to accept the success that they attract.

So here is what you need to focus on instead. You need to understand that upgrading your skills alone doesn't necessarily help you grow because we can only become as successful as we believe we deserve to be.

This will help you because you will understand your fears and limiting beliefs which hold you back despite working so hard on your professional growth. We have to be open and willing to change in order to fully benefit from the success that comes our way.

Just like trying to grow a palm tree inside a greenhouse, if you don't have the capacity to deal with the success you've attracted, then it won't matter how much time or effort you've invested into cultivating success.

So the third thing that is going to help you is to work on your mindset to attract (and maximize) the success you have worked so hard for.

My top tips to help you master this:

- 1) Understand your limiting beliefs
- 2) Get out of your comfort zone daily
- 3) Attract the opportunities which are right for you

YOUR NEXT STEP

THANK YOU SO MUCH for taking the time to read this guide - I know how frustrating / upsetting it can be to struggle with English.

But the fact that you are here reading this guide says a lot about you.

You are ready to find a solution. And for that I want to reward you.

While this guide will definitely help, it isn't going to be the "magic button" to help you take your English to the next level and use it to get huge results.

So here's something that will help...

Each week I open up time to speak with 10 people on a "Success Call".

It's a completely personalised plan to help you connect learning English to growing your income, happiness, connections, or all three.

I'll even be able to suggest some options where I might be able to help you excel at getting over your fear of speaking in English, highlighting your values in English, and attracting success.

After we create this personalised plan together you can choose to get my help implementing it or even use what we create on your own. So if you are ready and determined to feel ...

- > Confident speaking English
- > Worthy of success
- > Ready to share your expertise with the world

Let's take that next step and have a quick 30 minute chat to get you the help you need and deserve.

I look forward to speaking with you.
